OBJECT OF THE WORK

Some of the Reasons Urged for Raising the War Community Funds—Every Person Vitally Interested.

The boys who have gone from Alexandria to Camp McClellan at Anniston, Alabama, and to Camp Lee at Petersburg, Va., have a real interest in the success of the War Camp Community Fund campaign now in progress in this city. The Alexandria boys have been participating in the benefits of the same kind of work which has already been done in the towns near where they are, and the contributions made here will help to square the debt.

The War Camp Community Recreation Fund finances the war-time activities which the Playground and Recreation Association of America is conducting for the War Department and Navy Department Commissions on Training Camp Activities. Ira W. Jayne of Detroit, in speaking of this work, says:

"The object in each community is much the same—to convince the citizens that this boy in uniform is still a human being, that he has been uprooted suddenly from his native soil, stripped of every social prop and sane guard—his family ties, his friends, his church, his neighborhood, his fraternal groups, his business connections and the influence of women of his kind and so suddenly transplanted without their gates; that they should become interested in him as an individual, as a person, helping him to re-establish those social connections with this community upon which he was accustomed to depend at home; that he should be neither patronized nor slighted; that he should be neither pauperized nor exploited; that he was a civilian yesterday, as they still are, and that he will, let us hope, return to his home a civilian tomorrow.

"Every person in the community near the camp is virtually concerned, for the presence of these soldiers at their gates is bound to react on the community in some way. If the community evades the responsibility, the result will be broken homes, vice, disease, illegitimate children, brutalized men, disgraced women, lowered standards and moral deterioration. If the community meets the responsibility by constructive community effort to absorb the men as individuals, it will not only function patriotically in helping to build a vallant army, it will also protect the community itself and its people.

"To others is given the duty of developing these boys physically, morally, into soldiers. To us remains the responsibility of helping them to retain their individuality and their feeling of personal civil responsibility. This we must accomplish indirectly through the adjoining community in which we work."

JAIL FOR EMMA GOLDMAN.

Supreme Court Refuses Rehearing; Same for Alexander Berkman.

The Supreme Court, by declining to grant a rehearing of their cases and ordering the mandate issued at once, yesterday refused to delay further the carrying out of the sentences of Emma Goldman and Alexander Berkman, convicted in New York of conspiring to violate the draft law. The court sustained their convictions on January 14.

Miss Goldman and Berkman were sentenced to two years and fined $10,000 each.

In Memoriam.

Fell asleep in Jesus, my darling mother, Friday morning at 6:30, Jan 25, 1918. She was born March 22, 1877.

Oh, darling mother, you have left me
In this world alone,
But some day I'm going to meet you
In that bright and happy home.
I loved you, mother, yes I loved you
But God and angels loved you more;
And I know you're waiting for me
On that bright and shining shore.

By her Daughter, Minnie M. Hurst.

ACTIVITY AT BELVOIR

Fifteen Hundred Carpenters and Laborers Now Employed in Erecting Buildings for the Soldiers Expected There.

Great activity is reported at the new military camp at Belvoir, south of Alexandria. Mr. L. C. King, traffic manager for the camp, was in the city this morning. During his stay here he stated to a Gazette representative that there are already 1,500 carpenters and laboring men employed there in erecting the buildings which will be necessary to house the thousands of soldiers who are expected to arrive at the camp as soon as accommodations are arranged for them.

According to the best advices obtainable there will be eleven hundred buildings put up for the soldiers. Each building will be about 89x149 feet in size. Mr. King said that a branch line of railroad will be built from Accotink to the Camp, connecting with the Washington and Southern railroad at Accotink, in order to transport the necessary freight that will have to be carried to the camp.

Considerable difficulty is being experienced in obtaining the required number of carpenters and laborers to push the work on the buildings as rapidly as desired. Mr. King said that five thousand men could be used to advantage if they could be secured. Wages are being paid carpenters at the rate of 62 1-2 cents per hour and laboring men get 35 cents. It is hoped to complete the contracts within three months.

Just how many soldiers will be stationed there is not known Some estimates are as high a twenty thousand, while others assert that there will be as many as sixety thousand.

FLOODS SWEEP TOWNS.

Breaking of Ice Gorge Causes Disaster in Ohio Valley.

Lexington, Ky., Jan. 29.—Flood which followed the breaking up of ice gorges in the mountain streams threatens the town of Jackson with destruction.

The college town of Ida, in Clay county, also was inundated yesterday afternoon. Children attending the Baptist Institute were carried to safety in boats.

Ashland, Ky., Jan. 29.—Ice in the Ohio River broke late yesterday and swept the Ashland wharfboat from its mooring, wrecking it against the ice piers one mile below the city. As the wharfboat passed the ferryboat it knocked a hole in the latter, which sank. The steamer Greyhound was badly damaged by the ice.

Word from above is that the Kanawha ice is coming down and sweeping everything before it.

The Big Sandy River is higher at Pikesville and above than has ever been known before. Pikesville is under water, and the flood is more than a foot deep in the New Jefferson Hotel, in the business portion of the city on high ground.

Much damage is being done to the railroad property along the New River and Kanawha territory. Rain continued at a late hour last night.

Alexandria City and Suburbs

Mr. and Mrs. Julian Harslip, of Cottage Park have returned from a few days visit with friends in Wilmington, Del.

A chauffeur was fined $1 in the Police Court this morning for violating the traffic law. This was the only case on the docket.

Mr. Elias Pettit, aged 83 years, died yesterday at the Alexandria hospital. His funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock from Demaine's chapel.

The funeral of John J. Fitzgerald who died at the Alexandria hospital on Saturday, was held this morning from St. Mary's Catholic church at 10 o'clock, the Rev. Louis Smet officiating. The deceased was a resident of Del Ray.

In the Corporation Court today in the case of the Southern Railway Company vs. Whitestone and Clark, judgment was rendered for the plaintiffs. In the case of Stuart A. Bryant vs. George F. Chisholm judgment was also rendered for the plaintiff.

Deputy Collector J. Fred Birrell, states that people are coming in very slowly to make out their income tax returns and that unless the work is expedited faster he is of the opinion that many will put the matter off and wait until it is too late to get them in at the time the law directs.

In order to be able to get the city fire apparatus to the scene of a yrt, if an alarm should be given while the deep snow is on the ground, three horses will be used on Columbia engine three on the Relief Hook and Ladder truck and two on the Reliance Hose wagon. The motor truck will be used also in place of the Reliance engine.

TESTING OUSTER LAW.

Case of Sheriff Who Accepted Railway Pass Is Called.

In Fauquier circuit court yesterday the first real test of the "ouster" law was made before Judge George Latham Fletcher. It is the case of the commonwealth against W. S Woolf, sheriff, and is the result of the acceptance of a railroad pass given by the Southern Railway to that officer in "return for services rendered in the service of papers and writs" and the like. The state corporation commission had a hearing in the matter, the result being that a fine of $500 was imposed on the road Then Sheriff Woolf resigned his office and the judge appointed him to succeed himself.

Attorney General Pollard, after waiting a reasonable time, and as there was no disposition on the part of the county authorities to remove the sheriff, determined to test the matter. He instituted quo warranto proceedings to have the appointment declared void, taking the ground that when the sheriff had forfeited his office by accepting the pass, it was for the term of which he was elected.

It is, this phase of the case that is to be adjudicated. If the court upholds the sheriff the attorney general is expected to appeal. Preponderance of opinion would seem to support the contention of the attorney general. There are several cases similar to this which will stand or fall as this matter is determined.

500,000 POUNDS OF POWDER LOST

One Man Injured in Explosion and Fire at Du Pont Plant.

Wilmington, Del., Jan. 29.—One man was burned and 500,000 pounds of smokeless powder consumed by a fire at plant No. 2 of the DuPont Power Company at Carneys Point, N. J., late yesterday afternoon.

H. Osburn, driver of a car in which powder is hauled from one mill to another, was slightly burned about the back of the head, but after treatment at the plant hospital, returned to work.

The money loss is estimated at $250,000.

The fire occurred in a drying tunnel of a powder recovery.

Post F of the Travellers Protective Association will hold a meeting Thursday afternoon at 8 o'clock at the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce for the purpose of electing a secretary.

The Alexandria city and county draft board yesterday sent out notifications to sixty of the drafted men in the A class summoning them to report to the board on Monday next for examination at the Federal building in this city.

Fuel Commissioner George E. Warfield stated this morning that the coal situation in Alexandria is far from satisfactory. Some anthracite coal is reported to be on the way here but it seems necessary that the people will have to accustom themselves to the continued use of soft coal, which will practically be the only kind it will be possible to get here for some time to come.

Thirty-five more laboring men arrived in the city yesterday who will be employed at the shipyard of the Virginia Shipbuilding Corporation Others are expected to arrive daily from this time on until the number is increased to about 2,500. Although hindered greatly by the inclement weather, progress is being made as rapidly as possible with the preliminary work.

Complaints were to be heard all over the city yesterday concerning the sidewalks. Many of them, even in the business portion of the town were left covered with snow all day long, practically, making them especially unpleasant for people to walk about for the necessary transaction of business. Some of the new residents were heard to inquire if Alexandria was only a country village and if a real snowstorm would shut up the town entirely.

STORM DIES IN WEST.

Train Movements Unhampered by Fourth Blizzard.

Chicago, Jan. 29.—The fourth severe storm to sweep the Central State thus far this winter, died out Saturday night without causing much damage either to property or transportation.

Coming closely on the two blizzards of the early part of January, it was feared that the added snow would hamper train movements, but last night, the railroads reported traffic normal. Street conditions in Chicago were found to be little worse for yesterday's snow, but citizens were appealed to for help in seeing that fire hydrants were made accessible, and crossings were cleared.

The railroads reported that the movement of coal was even a trifle better yesterday than during last week, more cars reaching and passing Chicago than on any one day for several days. Deliveries are made to houses in small quantities, but despite the continuous efforts of coal companies, many flat-buildings yesterday were without enough coal to make the building comfortable, and some were in danger of frozen pipes.

TEUTONS IN TERROR.

American Fliers Join in Daylight Raid in Germany.

London, Jan. 29.—British airmen who raided Mannheim Thursday night caused unparalleled terror in that city, according to Geneva dispatches to the London Daily Express, quoting several travelers from Germany. One of these, an injured German, arrived at Basle. Despite police orders, he said, terror-stricken people rushed out of doors half clothed and gathered in the streets. The British raiders scored a direct hit on the barracks.

After the raid the travelers declared crowds assembled and shouted: "Down with war, give us peace."

Four American aviators attached to a French squadron have participated in a daylight bombing raid over Germany. All returned safely.

They report a pleasant trip to and from France, recently.

The Salvation Army throughout the United States is planning a campaign to raise $1,000,000, one-half of which is to be used for the American soldiers in France and the other half for the soldiers in the cantonments in this country. Mr. Smith represented the third ward in the city council in 1903-4 and was a member of the street committee when the first vitrified pavements were laid in Alexandria. He possessed a kind, genial disposition and his death will be mourned by a host of friends. He is survived by his widow and son Allen, of this city; a daughter, Mrs. Joseph H. Harris, of Roanoke, Va.; two sisters, Mrs. W. C. Baggett and Miss Ruth Smith, of Alexandria; and two brothers, Carter Smith, of Alexandria and Harvey Smith, of Washington. OFFICE ABOLISHED.

Position Caused Expenditure by the State of $2,300 Annually.

Abolishment of the office of state superintendent of hospitals for the insane now held by J. M. Bauserman, of Woodstock, was strongly urged in the house of delegates by Delegate Otto V. Pence, of Shenandoah, yesterday, and, following his speech, the house adopted, without any further debate, the resolution calling for its abolishment. Mr. Pence said it was an "unnecessary office" for which the state pays $2,000 salary and $300 traveling expenses to the incumbent. This same resolution was adopted by the house at the last session of the legislature, when only twenty members voted against it. The vote today was unanimous for abolishment ayes, 63, noes, 0.

London, Jan. 29.—A British official communication issued concerning the Sultan Selim says:

"At noon Sunday the Goeben's position was unchanged."

STOPS PRISONERS' PAY.

Germany Failed to Answer Request of U. S. Regarding Officers' Compensation.

Washington, Jan. 29.—Germany has failed to reply to the proposal of the United States that German commissioned officials, held prisoners here, receive the pay of their grade in return for similar privileges being accorded American officers held in Germany, so the War Department has cut off the payments which were being made to Germans.

GERMANY AND AUSTRIA

Teutons Accuse Allies Premier of Traitorously Courting America.

Amsterdam, Jan. 29. —Hand-in-hand with the growing labor unrest in Germany and Austria-Hungary goes a violent press controversy revolving around the Austro-Hungarian foreign minister's peace aims reply, particularly the hint at conciliation with America contained therein. This is clearly shown by advices from the two Teutonic capitals.

A wide gap has been sprung between strong sections of public opinions in the two nations by the divergence between the German chancellor's and Count Czernin's speeches.

While the press controversy rages, some of the pan-German organs going so far as to call Czernin a traitor to Germany, the censorship both at Berlin and Vienna has cast an impenetrable veil over everything that could tend positively to answer the question whether there is an actual split between the two governments, or whether the divergence between the two leading statesmen's addresses was shrewdly "framed" beforehand as part and parcel of a far-reaching scheme of diplomatic camouflage whose ultimate purposes are known only to the schemers themselvers.

Two days after Scheidemann told the Reichstag main committee that the Austrian Emperor had been openly insulted in the streets of Vienna, equally outspoken references to the Kaiser could be heard in the streets of Berlin.

NAVAL OFFICER KILLS SELF.

Lieut.-Com. Parsons Had Supervision of Atlantic Coast Patrol.

Norfolk, Va., Jan. 29.—Lieut.-Com John H. Parsons, U. S. N. R. F., was found dead in his office in the Fifth Naval District Sunday afternoon with a bullet hole in his head. He had been dead several hours when the body was found. In his right hand was a revolver. His friends say he committed suicide because of ill health.

Lieutenant-Commander Parsons was in command of practically the entire flotilla of submarine chasers along the Atlantic coast.

He was Commissioners of Fisheries of Virginia and was considered wealthy. He has a son at the Naval Academy, Annapolis, and is also survived by his widow.

Mrs. Dane's Defense.

In her latest Paramount photoplay, "Mrs. Dane's Defense," which will be seen at the Richmond tomorrow, Pauline Frederick's portrayal of a woman hunted to the last stand, straining every nerve to hide the deceit of her life and finally succumbing in a most human way, is a masterpiece and entirely up to her usual high standard. "Mrs. Dane's Defense" which was adapted for the screen by Margaret Turnbull, the well known scenario writer, has been directed by Hugh Ford who has directed Miss Frederick in many of her stage and screen productions.

KILLED BOY, THEN HIMSELF.

Harry Landes' Automobile Caused Death of Lad Several Years Ago.

York, Pa., Jan. 29.—Harry Landes, 24 years old, a young farmer who several years ago ran over and killed Bruce Arnsberger, 15 years old, with his automobile, shot and killed himself Sunday.

Killing the boy, it is said, preyed on Landes' mind. He is a son of Cornelius B. Landes, a hotelkeeper of this city.

AIRCRAFT BOMB LONDON

Reports Indicate That Loss of Life and Property Was Heavy by Second Attack Within Four Hours.

London, Jan. 29.—German aircraft bombed London early today for the second time within four hours.

Early reports indicated that the toll of life and property was heavy.

Raiding planes were savagely attacked by British airmen and by high angle batteries, and one of the machines in the first attacking squadron was shot down in Essex while trying to make its way to this city.

Viscount French, commander-in-chief of the home defenses, announced that the first squadron was sighted over the Essex and Kentish coast about 8 o'clock, and the word was immediately flashed to London.

British airmen sweeped skyward to intercept the enemy, and the artillery men of the high angle batteries began to comb the sky with their searchlights.

Some of the hostile machines were turned back, but others succeeded in reaching London, and shortly after 9 o'clock the thunder of the guns in the London suburbs announced that the raiders had been sighted. Some bombs were dropped.

The second squadron of hostile machines made its appearance over the capital shortly before 1 o'clock.

SCORE OF MEN KILLED.

Series of Explosions in Marquette, Mich., Followed by Fires.

Marquette, Mich., Jan. 29.—A score of men are reported killed today in a series of explosions, followed by fire which destroyed the alcohol refining plant and the primary building of the Pioneer Iron Furnace here. The plant covers several blocks on the outskirts of the city.

Two men working on the second floor of the refinery were hurled from the building and thrown seventy-five feet into a ditch by the first explosion. They escaped with slight injuries.

How many other men were in the building will not be known until a check of the company's rolls is made.

Fire that followed the explosions is still burning and at latest reports was threatening other buildings of the plant. The damage thus far is estimated at several hundred thousand dollars.

Officials of the company expressed doubt of the police theory that the explosions may have been the outcome of a plot.

The part of the plant destroyed had been engaged in the manufacture of alcohol, and ground chemicals for powerful explosives under contract with the United States Government.

SOLDIERS HELD.

Eleven Anniston Men Jailed—Ties Found Piled on Tracks.

Camp McClellan, Anniston, Ala., Jan. 29.—While railroad men and military police are investigating an attempt to wreck a train near Chocolocco, 14 miles from Anniston, Sunday night, 11 soldiers arrested at the station in the former town early yesterday are being held in the Anniston jail.

The men were arrested by military police, who made the trip down the road to Chocolocco in a Southern Railway engine. They were brought back handcuffed on a flat car just ahead of a through passenger train.

Ties were piled on the tracks near Chocolocco Station, and into these a freight engine ran shortly after midnight.

There were obstructions on the other track, on which the express was running. These were removed by the military police and railroad hands also a little while before the train was due.

The eleven soldiers, seven of whom were from New Jersey and four from Maryland, were absent without leave from camp. When taken some were asleep and others lounging on the station platform and in freight cars near Chocolocco. The military police answered the call to Chocolocco after the phone summons from that place.

INFLUX OF WORKMEN.

There are more strangers in Alexandria today than at any time since the civil war, and they are not lookers-on in Venice either, but busy-looking men who have come here to stay. Many show the traces of strenuous business lives, while the majority are of the mechanical and laboring class. Several hundred artisans are employed at the shipbuilding plant on Lee street extended, and hundreds are arriving here to be employed by the company which is now engaged in work preliminary to the establishment of a plant at the old shipyard, the reclaimed ground of Battery Rodgers cove and part of Jones' Point, formerly owned by the Southern Railway Company.

At an early hour this morning groups of strangers, all bearing the impress of workmen appeared in groups on Royal street south of King Most of these men are to be employed by the shipbuilding company, and most of them were making anxious inquiries for boarding houses. Numbers breakfasted in lunch houses before repairing to the southeastern section of the city where their field of labors lies.

The prevailing severe weather has seriously interfered with the operations of the company. During the past few weeks it has been impossible to men to work in the open, hence but little has been done towards preparing the ground for the material and machinery which is to enter into the plant.

As was stated some time ago in the Gazette, it is the purpose of the company to bring to this city a mammoth steamer in which workmen will be housed temporarily, or while the work of construction of the new shipyard is in progress. The ice in the river, however, has so far rendered this impossible.

It is understood that the plan of converting the hull of the old ferry steamer Columbia into a boathouse for the convenience of the workmen is being seriously considered. For several years this hull has been known as the "Ark," a floating Monte Carlo which was raided Sunday week All the gambling paraphernalia was transported to Fairfax Courthouse and it was said the boat was to dynamited. It is now proposed that the remited. It has been suggested that the remains of the old Columbia be towed from Hunting Creek to the shipyard and converted into quarters for workmen.

UNREST IN CENTRAL POWERS.

Dispatches from European capitals since Premier Czernin of Austria and Chancellor Hertling of Germany made their speeches on war aims of the Hohenzollerns and Hapsburgs become more significant hourly. That the rank and file of both countries are disappointed is apparent, and that the rumblings of a volcano are being heard more distinctly is a patent fact. The result of this unrest is awaited with interest in every country in the world. That Austria is anxious to sheath the sword becomes plainer all the time, and that Premier Czernin's speech did not surprise the German war lords is the common belief. The Washington Post in this connection very properly observes:

Reports from Vienna and Berlin exhibit a lively desire on the part of the German and Austrian foreign offices to make a catspaw of President Wilson. The hope is cherished that by a circuitous backdoor route the path to peace may be found. The approaches to President Wilson are to be made through the Hapsburgs, whose hands are not quite so bloody as those of the Hohenzollerns. The intermediary in behalf of Germany is to be Count Czernin, the accomplished foreign minister of Austria, ably assisted by that consummate diplomat, Dr. von Kuehlmann, German minister of foreign affairs. President Wilson has been grossly misjudged many times by the enemy during this war, but never before has the enemy presumed to regard him as devoid of intelligence. The attempt to impose upon him at this time, in the manner indicated, is less complimentary to him than anything that has been said by his most virulent critics. The Hohenzollerns and Hapsburgs come to the wrong place with their peace propaganda The Yankees have fought savages before. The United States knows that President Wilson understands exactly what it wants. It wants certain matters settled before it will be ready for peace. Peace is a fine thing, but it is not a substitute for national independence and human liberty.

By a vote of 14 to 7 the foreign committee of the Austro-Hungarian reichsrath has voted its confidence in Count Czernin, foreign minister.

Open demand that the German people revolt "to save themselves," and reference to the kaiser as "Germany's hangman," was made by the Deutsches Tages Zeitung, according to copies of that paper received in Amsterdam. Deutsches Tages Zeitung is the agragrian conservative newspaper organ of the landed class of Germany, and not heretofore regarded as in the slightest degree radical.

An outline of the revolutionary demands to be made on the Kaiser's government by German labor shows that they are asking more of the despot than American labor has asked of its democracy.

The above are among the most significant dispatches received in America this week.

HOLIDAY MONTH.

The Richmond Times-Dispatch figures up the holidays in February which give the man with a hankerin' for off-days a pleasant thrill. Counting four Sundays out of the shortest month of the year, cuts it down to twenty-four days. Along comes heatless Monday four times and the shortened month is twenty days. Nip off Lincoln's birthday, and then take a holiday in honor of the Father of His Country, and leave just eighteen days remaining in the full cloth of old February. Then if the man with the hankerin' for holidays is of the sentimental sort, he recalls that he still has St. Valentine to commemorate. Four half holidays on the afternoons of the Saturdays also come to mind as he goes prying on, and leave only fifteen real, honest-to-goodness working days. Glancing on over the calendar thus abbreviated something suggests that February 25 ought to come in for some bit of the spirit that dominates the month, and honor is done to the full moon. Thus the shortest month is divided into fourteen days for work and fourteen days for play. For the man who can persuade himself that the division is bona fide and good for business, there is some joy in February, even though it is punctuated with heatless Mondays and low temperature.

Our cotemporary, like many others at different times, has attempted to play Hamlet without Hamlet. The Times-Dispatch has ignored Ground Hog Day, February 2.

February 22d, anniversary of the birth of George Washington, has for over a century been Alexandria's gala day, more so than any other in the calendar. Of late, however, for various reasons, this day has not been observed by a general turnout and the decoration of public buildings, stores and residences as is often the case. The custom of placing wreaths upon the sarcophagus of the Father of the Country at Mount Vernon, however, is always observed.

Sudden transitions are happening in this world at present. George Washington was one of the apostles of freedom. Conditions in the two remaining autocratic countries of the world are ominous at present. We read of a band of discontended people in one of the cities of Austria discoursing the Marseillaise Hymn If this was a fact, we may later hear of the notes of the Star-Spangled Banner enthusing a war-weary people. We know not what a day may bring forth. While hot probable, it is possible that before the ides of February shall have passed away an upheaval in the central empires may bring about conditions which will cause old Alexandria to celebrate the anniversary of Washington's birth, although from present appearances no such intention is manifest on the part of our people.

"REDS" ATTACK FINLAND.

Russians Inaugurate Reign of Terror in Helsingfors.

Stockholm, Jan. 29.—The long-threatened revolution in Finland has begun in the eastern provinces, according to sparse reports reaching Haparanda. The "Red Guard" is reported to have occupied the railway station at Helsingfors, all the foreign consuls have left the capital and sharp fighting is reported around and in Viborg.

The "Red Guard" is holding Rikimaki and other important junctions, Russian soldiers are aiding the "Reds" and reinforcements are coming from Petrograd.

The Finnish Minister in Petrograd has protested to the Workmen and Soldiers' delegates against Russian interference in Finnish affairs. He received a reply that "Russia's Government, true to its principles, is in duty bound to support the proletartat in Finland in its battle against the Finnish Bourgeoisie."

The Bolshevik commissioner further declared that help had been sent to the "Reds" and that still more troops would be sent to them.

HALF MILLION IN FRANCE.

Secretary of War Baker Says U. S. Will Have 1,500,000 During Year.

Secretary of War Baker told the country yesterday that there will be 500,000 fighting men in France early in 1918. He made the still more significant announcement that during the present year upward of 1,500,000 United States soldiers will be ready to embark for France thoroughly equipped to do their full share in the great world war. These troops will come from the 32 camps of the national guard and new national army, which have been under constant training since last September.

Secretary Baker also told the military committee that so early as last August there were at least 150,000 men in France. He declined for military reasons to say just how many are there at this moment, but added that recent and reliable information from the intelligence departments of the allies proved that Germany had absolutely no idea of the number of American troops now in France behind the lines. Germany is guessing and has been guessing for months.

Walter C. Dameron, railroad brakeman, 325 North Columbus St., Alexandria, says: "My back hurt so badly that often I had to lay off from work. After I got down I couldn't straighten up again without sharp pains catching me across my kidneys. There was hardly a night passed that my back didn't ache. My kidneys acted too frequently and during the night I had to get up every little while. When morning came, I felt so tired and weak I could hardly drag myself out of bed. I doctored and tried different medicines, but felt no better until I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at Henry Callan's Drug Store and used them. I took about six boxes in all and since then I have had but little trouble from my kidneys and have felt like a different person."

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO CONSUMERS OF COAL

At the direction of the Fuel Administrator for Virginia, an order has been issued to the retail dealers of coal in this city and county, not to deliver coal to household consumers, in quantities in excess of two tons and then only when the consumer's supply on hand is two tons or less. This will make the maximum quantity of four tons at any one time. To larger consumers, deliveries are not to be made in quantities greater than the actual needs of the consumers for fifteen days, and then only when the consumer's supply on hand is less than their requirements for fifteen days. This will make the maximum quantity held by larger consumers at any one time, only sufficient for their actual needs for thirty days or less. Industries buying coal in carload lots must obtain special permit from the Fuel Administrator.

To make this order effective, and to relieve the dealer of the responsibility and difficulty of ascertaining the supply any consumer has on hand, it is arranged that an affidavit be furnished by the purchasers of coal in excess of one-half ton (this affidavit can be made by any member of the family over sixteen years of age.) These forms for making the affidavits will be in the hands of the dealers, and notaries and the affidavits will be taken without charge, by any one of the following notaries public, who have offered their services to aid the Commission in this work:

Miss Gladys M. Brooks, room 1, Alexandria National bank building, W. C. Drury, 107 south Royal street; J. T. Burke, Burke and Herbert; Miss Cora Duffey, Office, Clerk of Court; Courtland H. Davis, 121 south Royal street; Claude H. Crump, 1801 King street; M. L. Dinwiddie, Citizens National Bank; J. J. Green, First National Bank; E. J. Fleming, 119 south Fairfax street; A. C.
